

ELITE ACCESS

HOW IT WORKS

Introducing Element Elite Access, Element Aviation's membership program that simplifies access to quality equipment at an elite value. We've moved beyond overly complicated models of the past to offer our members ultimate value and control when flying private.

Consultation

Start your journey with a personalized consultation. Our dedicated Sales Executives will work closely with you to determine the best membership level, taking into account your most frequented routes and aircraft preferences.

Custom Itineraries

Enjoy bespoke travel planning with our custom quoted itineraries tailored to your individual trip needs. With Element Elite Access, there are no annual membership fees or interchange penalties—just seamless, stress-free travel.

Simplicity

Membership begins once your account is funded. Your 100% refundable deposit is debited with each flight, ensuring a straightforward and transparent payment process.

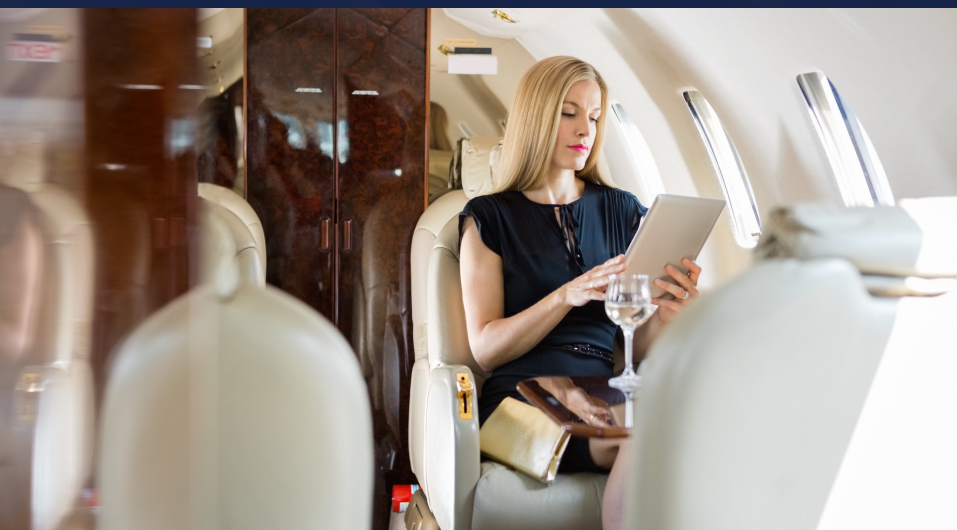

Personal Service

Each Element Elite Access member is supported by a dedicated client services team, available 24/7 to deliver personalized care and attention from the very first call. We take the time to get to know our members individually, enabling us to customize each flight to your unique needs. Our team's mission is to ensure that every Element Aviation experience provides impeccable service and personal attention every step of the way.

Safety

At Element Aviation, safety is our paramount concern and the cornerstone of our operations. We adhere to the strictest safety standards, underscored by our compliance with the rigorous requirements set forth by Argus International and Wyvern. Our unwavering commitment to these standards guarantees that our clients can travel with absolute confidence, knowing that their safety is our top priority on every flight.
